CURIOUS AND RARE COINS, &amp;c.

175 1431	1601 A very curious old Jetton. Ob. "Remus et Romulus," a Wolf suckling the twins; rev. "Remus et Remulus," the twins being delivered into the hands of the wife of Faustulus, the shepherd. There is no accounting for the name being spelled Remulus on this side; (possibly, however, it was the Die Sinker,) who might have imagined that Remulus would come nearer to his twin brother's name. H. K. on both sides of the Coin, are the initials of the maker of the Coin, Hans Krauwenkel. Copper. In very good condition, and very rare. Size 18
5 1432	1755 Augustus III. of Poland, head to right. Copper. Size 13
